Laboratory Procedures

Araloside A is supplied as a crystalline solid. Aqueous solutions of araloside A can be prepared by directly dissolving the crystalline solid in aqueous buffers. The solubility of araloside A in PBS, pH 7.2, is approximately 5 mg/ml. We do not recommend storing the aqueous solution for more than one day.

Description

Araloside A is a triterpenoid saponin that has been found in A. taibaiensis and has anti-inflammatory and gastroprotective effects.^{1,2} It increases apoptosis of and decreases production of IL-1β and IL-6 in human MH7A rheumatoid arthritis fibroblast-like synoviocytes when used at concentrations ranging from 4 to 16 μM.¹ Araloside A (50 and 100 mg/kg) reduces gastric acid secretion and lesion size in rat models of hydrochloric acid and ethanol-, aspirin-, water immersion stress-, or pyloric ligation-induced ulcer formation.²
