Description

Gliotoxin-¹³C₁₃ is intended for use as an internal standard for the quantification of gliotoxin (Item No. 11433) by GC- or LC-MS. Gliotoxin is an immunosuppressive mycotoxin produced by pathogenic strains of Aspergillus and other fungi with diverse biological activities.¹⁻⁸ It inhibits 20S proteasomal chymotrypsin activity (IC₅₀ = 10 μM), blocking the degradation of IκBα and preventing the activation of NF-κB.^{2,3} Gliotoxin induces apoptosis in monocytes and dendritic cells and reduces phagocytosis by neutrophils.^{4,5} It suppresses viral infection by Nipah and Hendra virus in HEK293T cells (IC₅₀s = 149 and 579 nM, respectively).⁶ Under reducing conditions, gliotoxin inhibits leukotriene A₄ hydrolase (LTA₄H; Item No. 10007817) epoxide hydrolase activity, but not aminopeptidase activity, and leukotriene B₄ (LTB₄; Item No. 20110) synthesis in neutrophils and monocytes.⁷ In vivo, gliotoxin (5 mg/kg) reduces LTB₄ plasma levels and blocks peritoneal neutrophil infiltration in a mouse model of peritonitis induced by zymosan A (Item No. 21175). It also inhibits geranylgeranyltransferase I and farnesyltransferase (IC₅₀s = 17 and 80 μM, respectively).⁸
